

U.S. Agricultural Trade

In 2006, horticulture, cotton & livestock products drive export growth, while low grain & oilseed prices persist and some BSE beef import bans on remain. Imports continue rapid rise on strong consumer demand led by horticultural products.

